

CMS Guidelines for Sustained Silent Reading Time

- 1. Students must read for the entire allotted reading period.
- 2. Teachers are expected to read along with the students.
- 3. You cannot do homework. SSR is not a study period.
- 4. You may read anything as long as it is school appropriate and the text does not compete with the pictures.
- 5. You must have a book in your possession when SSR times start; this is the main responsibility involved in coming prepared to your SSR class.
- 6. You may not talk or disturb others.
- 7. Please don't ask to leave the room during SSR time.
- 8. Disruptions will be kept to a minimum. This means students will not be called out of class; messages will not be distributed, etc...
