

Cleaning Filters on Projectors

The projector that is hanging upside down from the ceiling has a filter located on the bottom of projector, which is now on top. The door just comes off and has a small filter in it. Use a can of air to blow off dust. Replace filter and door and then blow dust off of the projector also.

If you do this several times during the school year you will ensure that the bulb does not blow prematurely.

